

--That the FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.

--Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home by allowing me to feel it is MY home.

--Indiana's law has been very dffective for me though not all calls are stoped as they should be. When did my government decide that my house is no longer my castle?